How can we prevent students from searching for homework solutions on the web?

Saturday, April 17, 2021 2:30 PM (20 minutes)

Many students waste their time and energy searching for solutions to homework problems on the web, or they resort to paying Chegg and other tutoring services to solve the homework problems for them.

How can we prevent this? In this talk, I will discuss the strategies I have been implementing at Virginia Tech.
